Location:

The municipality of La Matanza de Acentejo, in the north-east of Tenerife, owes its name to the battle that took place there during the conquest, in which the Spanish were defeated by the Guanche people. The municipality borders La Victoria de Acentejo, Candelaria and El Sauzal. The vegetation on the cliffs is outstanding, where you will find scrubland with a wide variety of plants. From almost everywhere you can enjoy the panoramic view of the Teide, the north coast of Tenerife and the Atlantic Ocean.

The traditional centre of La Matanza is situated above the motorway and offers excellent restaurants, shopping facilities, schools, bars, pharmacies and medical services. The motorway provides quick access to Puerto de la Cruz, the northern airport and Santa Cruz.
