Description:

This historic property, burrowed in the Tramuntana mountains of Mallorca in the charming village of Estellencs, dates back to the 18th century, possibly earlier. Set amidst stunning mountain views, the home spans approximately 864m² across three wings. It includes a traditional open kitchen, a grand banquet hall, multiple living rooms, 9 bedrooms, and 3 bathrooms. The impressive entrance patio provides an ideal space for hosting events.

Authentic features such as stone floors, original doors and windows, exposed stone walls, and wooden beams enhance the property's charm. Additionally, there is an original olive press, further annexes for storage or other use and a garage, bringing the total constructed area to 1104m². With its rich history and picturesque setting, this property offers endless potential to create a dream mountain retreat.
