Description:

Your natural stone villa in Mallorca. Surrounded by the sea, bays and a lush green area on your doorstep, you can hardly get closer to the fantastic nature of the island. This property offers everything your heart desires to enjoy life on Mallorca to the full.

On the spacious plot, the natural stone villa is spread over two living levels with terraces, a large pool area with sun deck, an area for an outdoor kitchen and a dining table. A well-planted Mediterranean garden frames the various areas and offers both sun and shade depending on the season.

The beautiful stone façade of the villa, built with stone from the island, shimmers in the sun and provides a lively exterior. This traditional construction gives the house an authentic Mallorcan charm.

There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms on the first floor. An inviting living room with directly adjoining kitchen invites you to linger.

From here you can enjoy the gentle blue sea, which provides a pleasant breeze on warm summer evenings.

On the second living level there is a beautiful, external stone staircase that leads up to the second living level. This offers breathtaking views of the surrounding area, including the Far de Capdepera viewpoint, the beach and the Cala Gat hotel. There is a kitchen, a bathroom, another bedroom and a large terrace.

This floor can be used as an apartment for friends, family or for renting out.

Are you looking for a classic Mallorcan-style villa in a beautiful natural setting with the sea right on your doorstep? Then this property is just right for you.
