Description:

Are you looking for a spacious apartment that you can design entirely according to your own ideas? We offer you a unique opportunity: two combined apartments that are still undergoing renovation. This gives you the flexibility to complete the project as you wish or to split the apartments back into two separate units.

Currently it is a very large apartment with 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, but there are numerous possibilities to extend this. This makes the property ideal for someone who wants to take the final design and layout into their own hands. In addition, the apartment is located in a super luxurious residential complex, which makes for an exclusive and comfortable living environment.

Imagine how you can customize this spacious apartment to your personal taste. Whether you want to make it one large, luxurious home or split it back into two separate apartments - the choice is yours.

This is an exceptional opportunity for investors, families or anyone looking for a large, customizable living space in a luxury development.
