Description:

Townhouse with Holiday Rental License in the Heart of Pollensa – Unique Investment Opportunity

Nestled in the charming old town of Pollensa, this exceptional four-story townhouse is just a short stroll from the bustling town square, home to many charming restaurants and cafés, as well as the iconic Calvario steps. Pollensa is part of the UNESCO-listed Tramuntana Mountains, offering some of the most breathtaking scenery in Mallorca. The town is renowned for its authentic Mallorcan character, boutique hotels, and vibrant cultural scene, with picturesque cobbled streets lined with shops, art galleries, and historic landmarks. The area attracts visitors and residents alike with its rich history, weekly market, and proximity to stunning beaches and hiking trails.

One of the key highlights of this property is that it is the highest house on the street, offering a unique position with added privacy and natural light. Additionally, its prime location in the heart of Pollensa and its rare, unrestricted holiday rental license make this an outstanding investment opportunity, allowing full flexibility for short-term rentals. Properties at this price with a holiday rental license are becoming increasingly rare, making this a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking for both a holiday home and a secure investment.

The planned layout includes:

- Ground floor – Open-plan kitchen and dining area, entrance hall, guest toilet, and a small patio area.
- First floor – Spacious and bright living area.
- Second floor – Bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.
- Third floor – Master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

With high ceilings and large windows, the house enjoys an abundance of natural light, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere. As it is currently unfinished, this property presents a unique opportunity to personalize the interior to your own taste and style.

This is a rare opportunity at an excellent price—contact us today for more details!
