Location:

Sol de Mallorca is a tranquil and upscale residential area located in the southwest of Mallorca, within the municipality of Calvià. Surrounded by pine forests and close to the coastline, it offers a peaceful and natural environment. The area is known for its small, secluded beaches and coves, such as Cala Bella Dona and Cala Falco, which feature crystal-clear waters and unspoiled beauty.

The residential offerings include luxury villas, modern apartments, and exclusive estates, making it a sought-after location for high-end living. While Sol de Mallorca maintains a quiet atmosphere, it has access to essential services, small shops, and a few restaurants. Larger commercial hubs like Palmanova and Magaluf are just a short drive away. Located approximately 25 kilometers from Palma, the island's capital, and about 30 kilometers from Palma de Mallorca Airport, Sol de Mallorca is well-connected but retains its serene charm. Its natural surroundings, with trails for walking and cycling amidst abundant greenery, make it an ideal retreat for nature lovers and those seeking privacy and luxury away from the busier tourist areas.
