Description:

This unique and stunning Villa in the exclusive area of la Font Pollensa enjoys the best views of the valley below and the distant sea.

It is in complete harmony with its surroundings, sculpted within the rocky hill, everything about this property is special and unique!

Laid out on 2 floors, the entrance brings you to the top roof terrace where 2 charming stone towers offer room for storage and one also has a stairway down to the interior of the Villa.

This terrace has an outdoor kitchen area and a shaded dining area to enjoy meals outside looking out at the impressive views!

You arrive at the first floor with its 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms through the tower or down the stairs to the main entrance. Each of the bedrooms has direct access to a middle terrace overlooking the pool and the valley.

Further down you arrive at the ground floor where you have access up some steps to the fifth main bedroom, with its private living area and bathroom ensuite, on the right side of the building.

The ground floor is one open space where various environments intertwine, the living area adds a touch of color and glamour, and the dining area is in harmony with the rocky hillside and plants next to the modern luxury kitchen with a wide spacious island to keep everything tidy.

There is also a nice modern guest bathroom on this floor.

This large space looks out beautiful glass sliding doors to the main terrace with a large swimming pool where the big statue of an elephant is in charge of filling the pool up with water when needed.

There is also a basement that can be used as a storage room with a porthole looking into the swimming pool.

No expense has been spared to convert this property into a luxurious Villa with underfloor heating, a heated pool, and walls with Santaní stone, always respecting the natural landscape that surrounds the house with loving care.
